Wellbeing walk Wednesday 14th July.

Everyone of all abilities are welcome on the second of our well-being walks. We will be starting the walk from the church carpark at 9.30am. Our walk will take us through Lodge Farm Park, into Raphaels Park where we will pause at the bandstand for a few moments of reflection, before heading on to the café nearest the tennis courts for a cuppa (weather permitting, if it's raining we will finish the walk at the bandstand). You are welcome to drop in and out at any point, it would just be lovely to see you! Please contact Jan for any extra information

Can you help?

Alison is looking for 6 pairs of volunteers to help the CMA debt advisors complete their final part of training. Would you be able to come and pretend to be clients? You'll be given some background information and have a script of the answers you need to give. You won't need to share any of your own personal information. We need 3 pairs on Sunday 18th July from 1-4pm (2 friends can do this, it doesn't have to be couples). Please contact

Alison by email office@romfordbaptist.org.uk
